having a date of birth of 3-31-53 and social security number of [REDACTED] hereby empowers any employee of the Department of Labor and Training, Division of Professional Regulations (hereafter "DLT") to obtain criminal and financial reports associated to me for the purpose of evaluating general character and financial condition. The information may be used for purposes of obtaining a credit report on me and/or may be shared with the Bureau of Criminal Identification of the Department of the Attorney General for the State of Rhode Island, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to make available any criminal record or other disposition that the Bureau of Criminal Identification has on file in reference to me.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of information requested by this form is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include numerous federal statutes, Rhode Island statutes, presidential executive orders, regulations and/or orders of the Attorney General of the United States, or other authorized authorities. Providing the requested information is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the information may affect timely completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN): Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain licensing determinations may be predicated on fingerprint based checks. Your fingerprints and other information contained on (and along with) this form may be submitted to the requesting agency and/or FBI for the purpose of processing your application. During the processing of this application, and for as long hereafter as may be relevant to the activity for which this application is being submitted, the FBI may disclose any potentially pertinent information to DLT. The FBI may also retain the submitted information in the FBI's permanent collection of fingerprints and related information, where it will be subject to comparisons against other submissions received by the FBI. Depending on the nature of your application, DLT may also retain the fingerprints and other documents submitted.

ROUTINE USES

The fingerprints and information reported on this form may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may also be disclosed by the FBI without your consent as permitted by the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a(b)) and all applicable routine uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the routine uses for the FBI Fingerprint Identification Records System (Justice/FBI-009) and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses (Justice/FBI-BRU). Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: appropriate governmental authorities responsible for civil or criminal law enforcement, counterintelligence, national security or public safety matters to which the information may be relevant; to State and local governmental agencies and nongovernmental entities for application processing as authorized by Federal and State legislation, executive order, or regulation, including employment, security, licensing, and adoption checks; and as otherwise authorized by law, treaty, executive order, regulation, or other lawful authority. If other agencies are involved in processing this application, they may have additional routine uses.

Additional Information: DLT will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any system(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).

RECORD COMPLETENESS OR ACCURACY CHALLENGE NOTICE

FBI Record: This record is subject to the following use and dissemination restrictions: Under provisions set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 50.12, both governmental and nongovernmental entities authorized to submit fingerprints and receive FBI identification records must notify the individuals fingerprinted that the fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI. Identification Records obtained from the BRI may be used solely for the purpose requested and may not be disseminated outside DLT.

The official making the determination of suitability for licensing or employment shall provide the applicant the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information contained in the FBI identification record. DLT will not deny the license based on the information in the record until the applicant has been afforded a reasonable time to correct or complete the information, or has declined to do so. An individual should be presumed not guilty of any charge/arrest for which there is no final disposition stated on the record or otherwise determined. If the applicant wishes to correct the record as it appears in the FBI's CJIS Division Records System, the applicant should be advised that the procedures to change, correct or update the record are set forth in Title 28, CFR, Section 16.34.

The CJIS Division is not the source of the data appearing on identification records. All data is obtained from fingerprint submissions or related identification forms submitted to the FBI by local, state, and federal agencies. As a result, the responsibility for authentication and correction of such data rests upon the contributing agency (i.e., police department, county court, etc.). Please contact this agency or the central repository in the state where the arrest occurred to request a change, correction, or update. The FBI is not authorized to modify the record without written notification from the appropriate criminal justice agency.

I hereby waive and release any and all manner of actions, causes of actions, and demands of every kind, nature and description, in both law and equity which I may now have or may have in the future arising from any release of criminal records and requests therefrom, against the State of Rhode Island, the Bureau of Criminal Identification, the Attorney General, the Department of Labor and Training, Federal Bureau of Investigation, the employees of the Attorney General's Office, the employees and officials of the Federal Bureau of the employees and officials of the Department of Labor and Training. Upon submission of an application for licensure or a change in a licensee's officers, directors, manager or principal owner as defined in R. I. Gen. Laws § 19-14-1(10), each such officer, director, manager or principal owner must provide a signed response to the questions

(Additional copies of this form may be reproduced as needed.)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Applicant shall not complete this form. It shall be completed by citizens who can verify that the applicant or individual, owner, officer, manager, partner, or employee of the applicant fulfilling the experience requirement, has been engaged or employed in an alarm business in sales, installation, or service for an aggregate period of three (3) years prior to filing an application for an alarm business license. The person who satisfies this experience requirement must, by law, devote a substantial amount of his/her daily business or work time to engaging in and/or supervising the sale, installation, or servicing of alarm systems on behalf of the applicant.

2. Each person wishing to satisfy the experience requirement for any alarm business license must supply two (2) separate affidavits detailing his/her experience in this field. If the person has three (3) years of experience or a combination thereof from more than one state, two (2) affidavits will be required from each state where the person practiced or operated in an alarm business.
